Dear Malek,

I am writing to express my heart felt appreciation for the service VR Business Brokers provided me during my recent acquisition of Brooks Paving in Atlanta, Georgia.

I truly feel that the credit lies squarely with Malek Jandali. From our initial conversation, through the closing process, Malek was extremely professional and paramount to the success of my research. He was willing to meet with me and invest time educating me about the process.

Malek enthusiastically helped me buy a great company at a fair price. He managed a complex process, while connecting me to key advisers including my SBA loan officer, insurance agent, accountant, an industry expert, and title officer. Without VR, the sale would have taken much longer and there is a chance I would not own this business today.

I am deeply thankful to Malek Jandali and his staff at VR for all their invaluable attention to detail and their highly professional service to clients. I certainly recommend you and your M&A firm to any business partners looking to buy a business... we will definitely keep in touch and thank you once again for the professional manner in which you handled the deal.

Best regards,

Wayne A. Thompson
