Dear Malek,

My wife and I spent over 20 years building Brooks Paving, Inc. into one of Atlanta's largest and most respected paving companies. When it was time to sell the company, we interviewed many business brokers in town. VR Business Brokers was the obvious choice based on their professionalism, expertise, market leadership and past results.

Malek's attention to detail combined with his depth of knowledge on both the financial aspects of my business and the market details of my industry made him an excellent person to work with. I believe that his guidance can help anyone interested in selling or buying a business. Neither of us expected the sale to be so complicated. We now know why VR is considered the best in the business.

We sold the business within 4 months of listing. Needless to say, VR did an excellent job for us and we'd recommend them to all local business owners. In the business books today, the hot topic is "execution". Malek executed! We would recommend him to anyone considering the sale of their business.

Respectfully,

Dwayne Brooks, CEO
