To Whom It May Concern:

On August 1, 2006, our company signed the closing documents of the sale of our company to A Fleur To Remember, Inc. of Atlanta, GA.

In February 2006, we attended a meeting presented by Malek Jandali of VR Business Brokers Atlanta on how to prepare yourself to sell your company, to determine its value and how to market it. It was a real eye opener and made us decide to engage the help of professional intermediaries to ultimately offer our company up for sale.

We went ahead and had the Company Profile done. A few weeks later, it appeared to be the right time (Timing is everything!) to go to market and VR Atlanta became involved in the marketing process. We listed the business and signed the paperwork on April 21, 2006. It did not take long and the prospective buyer was found.

Because of the professionalism of all VR Atlanta's staff, it has been a real pleasure to do business with them. At all times, we were kept informed of all actions and meetings with the buyer and good advice was given as to how to deal with the initial offer to purchase and the total due diligence process. It can be stressful and distracting at times, but they kept it to a minimum. We truly believe that they have their clients' best interest at heart and will ultimately come up with a better deal than trying to sell it yourself.

We were able to sell our business and walk away with no further problems or concerns. Thank you, VR M&A Atlanta! We can highly recommend your services!

Thank you VR Atlanta!
